capacities,*

Defendant.

15 Civ. 7186 (KPF)

ORDER

KATHERINE POLK FAILLA, District Judge:

The Southern District of New York has reconfigured courtrooms and other spaces in its courthouses to allow civil jury trials to proceed as safely as possible during the COVID-19 pandemic. Under the centralized calendaring system currently in place, the Clerk's Office schedules up to three jury trials to begin on each day of jury selection: a primary case and up to two back-up cases that may proceed in its place if the primary case does not go forward. The Clerk's Office places additional back-up cases on a weekly trial-ready calendar, which cases may proceed on any day that week if the primary case and two back-up cases do not go forward.

On December 4, 2020, the parties informed the Court of their desire to proceed to trial in the second half of 2021. (See Dkt. #269). On December 7, 2020, the Court ordered that trial would commence on October 25, 2021 (Dkt. #270), and proceeded to request a jury trial for that date.

The Clerk's Office has now notified the Court that this case has been placed on the trial-ready calendar for the week of October 25, 2021, but that it has not been given either a firm trial date or an assigned courtroom. The parties should be prepared to proceed to trial during that week. If the case cannot proceed during the scheduled week, the parties must notify the Court as soon as possible so that the Clerk's Office may adjust the trial-ready calendar accordingly. The Court previously entered a schedule for pretrial submissions. (See Dkt. #270). The parties should plan to adhere to the deadlines set forth in the Court's prior Order.

The Clerk of Court is respectfully directed to mail a copy of this Order to Plaintiff at her address of record.

SO ORDERED.
